NEW BEGINNINGS IN THE NEW YEAR

January 8, 2024 was the official launch of our new Rooms of Refuge ministry! The extensive needs for those struggling with housing insecurities are indeed being confirmed. What we anticipated as being a relatively slow start as word would need to get around in the county about the program has, in fact, felt more like a fire hose of referrals and inquiries from numerous sources.

By mid-week of week three, Rooms of Refuge had hit its max and needed to stop conducting intake interviews.

What a blessing to know we are able to address such a need in the county!

Several of our Rooms of Refuge guests responded to this question:
How has ROR impacted your life so far?

"You guys took me off the street and gave me the courage to stop drinking. I have accomplished a lot since I have been here, and it's a real joy to be here. You are all so loving and caring and are now my family. I went back into church and met a lot of nice people. Everything I have set out to do I have accomplished by being here. The relationships I have formed are awesome. I feel like if I were to leave and go out and drink, people would be hurt, so it helps hold me accountable and keeps my life on track. I am working with TrueNorth to find housing, was able to get reconnected with CMH, and most importantly, have gained church family." - J.K., Rooms of Refuge Guest

"It (Rooms of Refuge) has helped me out quite a bit. I was able to meet great people and develop strong relationships with other guests. I accomplished my entire case management plan and have been accepted into permanent housing. Love volunteers and staff helped me and my dogs through a very tough time. I think the program is awesome." - E. A., Rooms of Refuge Guest

"I am off the street and have my daughter with me. I am sober! I have found a new family in other guests who are safe and supportive people. I am working towards finding a job and housing. I am working toward accomplishing my goals. Me and my daughter feel safe." - A. - Rooms of Refuge Guest

Pray for Rooms of Refuge as we continue to build partnerships with churches and strengthen this much needed program in the community!

If you would like to get involved, please consider being an overnight volunteer, helping with transportation, or providing a meal.
