LUNCH AND LEARN

Pastors have a chance to win a two-night giveaway!

As pastors, you are tasked with caring for your congregation and communities as ordained by God.

How can you actively and compassionately contribute to addressing the issue of human trafficking?

Love INC of Newaygo County is hosting a valuable event presented by the Newaygo County Human Trafficking Task Force. The goal is to empower pastors, youth leaders, and workers to protect young people and families from various threats, both online and offline.

LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED

Bryan Burgess from DHHS will provide updates on new laws and legal implications related to child abuse, production of materials, and pornography.

As mandated reporters, we need to keep current with these changes.

In a heartwarming celebration of community spirit and service, Love in the Name of Christ wants to take the opportunity this April to extend its sincerest gratitude to the dedicated volunteers who form the backbone of its operations.

With a remarkable 226 active volunteers, Love INC stands as a testament to the power of collective action and compassion. Yet, this number only scratches the surface of the vast network of individuals whose contributions go beyond the visible by providing meals, prayers, and unwavering support to families engaged in various ministries, including Rooms of Refuge and Growing Hope Budget classes.

Among the ranks of Love INC volunteers, age knows no bounds. From our youngest member, Tom, at 18 years old, to our beloved Bev, a shining example of dedication at 98, each of you brings something unique and precious to our cause. Your age is no barrier to making a difference, as evidenced by the recent afternoon we spent with fifth and sixth graders, whose enthusiasm and energy lit up the room as they served.

Margaret VanDenBerg's story stands as a poignant example of the profound impact volunteering can have on both the individual and the community. Despite recent health challenges, Margaret, aged 89, eagerly returned to volunteering at Love INC, driven by a deep-seated desire to give back to the community, reconnect with friends made through service, and find fulfillment in contributing to something larger than herself. Her words resonate deeply: "I missed helping out at Love INC and visiting with my friends." Margaret, you inspire us all to embrace life with open hearts and a willingness to give back.

As Love INC continues to champion the spirit of service and compassion, it extends a warm invitation to all who yearn to join the ranks of its volunteer champions. Whether you have a few hours to spare or a lifetime of passion to share, Love INC welcomes you with open arms and a heart full of gratitude.

In a chorus of cheers and heartfelt appreciation, Love INC celebrates its volunteers for their unwavering commitment, contagious enthusiasm, and boundless love as we celebrate National Volunteer Month. Thank you!

For those who haven't tried volunteering yet, we warmly invite you to join our Love INC family. Whether you have a few hours or more to spare, the benefits are significant. Volunteering isn't just about what we do; it's about the changes we experience inside. It's about connecting, helping, and growing together in faith.
